Chaweng

White sand stretching for 7 km fringed by coconut trees - The ultimate Tropical Dream. Of all Samui's beautiful beaches, Chaweng is the most popular and developed, offering a full range of accommodation from beach huts at 100 Bath per night to 5-star luxury resorts. Restaurants are plentiful and offer a complete range of food and beverage. The night scene provides a great variety of open air bars and huge discotheques where the rythm pulsates till dawn.

Lamai

A quiet and picture perfect tropical beach with sparkling clean water and coconut palms.

This pearl offers a combination of
ample accommodation, night life and picturesque village scenery.

Bungalows in Lamai are generally slightly cheaper than in Chaweng, though Lamai Beach also boasts several up-market resorts.

A wide range of restaurants and cafés
cater for every taste.

And in Lamai you find a real bar strip!

The local museum situated in the old monastery
is well worth a visit.

The Big Buddha

Sitting 15 metres tall, The big Buddha is arguably Samui's most popular attraction. The Buddha was built in 1972 by a local society that wished to give visitors a place to pay respect to The Lord Buddha. You will find this monumental landmark on a small island just off Samui's Northern coast.

Hin Ta & Hin Yai

Grandfather and Grandmother Rock - two of the island's most interesting natural phenomena, located at the southernmost point of Lamai Beach.

Hin Lad & Namuang Falls

You will find these beautiful and refreshing water falls in the hills just off the main road 3 km and 14 km respectively from Nathon Pier. Namuang actually consists of two water falls - the smallest one with a fall of 18 metres is accessible by car or motorbike and ideal for swimming. The larger one with a fall of 80 metres demands a 20 minute walk into the hills.

Sport activities

For those who like an active holiday Samui offers a wide range of possibilities: Diving, snorkeling, wind surfing, canoeing, sailing, fishing, jet-skiing, parasailing, trekking, bicycling, go-kart, tennis, billard and workout are among the most popular.

Transportation

Besides public transport, jeep, bicycle and motorbike rental is available all over Samui. Thailand has left hand side driving, drive carefully and use a helmet! Rental per day: Jeep 800 - 1.000 Baht incl. insurance, bicycle 60 - 80 Baht, small motorbike 150 Baht, big motorbike 400 - 900 Baht.
